A SCIENTIFIC EXPLORATION of INTEGRAL HEALTH

It's clear our planet and our collective have expanded into a new reality. The old models and structures are changing. We're experiencing time in a different way. Our cellular brains have the ability to tap into different time lines in the same instant. This bursting multi-dimensionality is creating a seeming chaos within the different levels of our mind. This chaos is reflected into our physical body, with the greatest impact on our immune system.

Using the quantum mechanical model, we can find a way of navigating this and coming transitions.

In this interactive discussion, Dr Sangeeta Sahi will introduce her way of working with the Integral Health principles and their correlation with the 3rd and 4th dimensional aspects of the quantum physics model, which relates to the human body system as a biological computer. We will be touching on the emerging light-body structures within the cellular matrix and their detoxifying and regenerative functions.

You will leave the session, hopefully, with a new perspective on health and your body and much new food for thought.

Please send questions. This will help greatly to direct the discussion in a way which is fulfilling for all of us.

Dr. Sangeeta Sahi is an Integrative Medical Doctor and Anti-aging Consultant, who graduated from the Christian Medical College in India, and Whipps Cross Hospital, London, UK. In addition, she received a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree from ESSEC in Paris, France. Dr. Sahi is a pioneering medical physician who combines her formal medical training with a host of dynamic, complementary and alternative therapies in her practice of Integrative Medicine. She has created a specific programme for individuals experiencing cancer and autoimmune diseases, using her own particular integrated approach. This programme is called Conscious Cancer®.

Her research has led her to further studies of the quantum energetic effects of the human DNA and the influence of these effects in the daily life of an individual. Dr. Sangeeta further researched the effects of brain-waves on people's memories, learning abilities, and their super-sensory intuitive and healing skills. It became clear to her that each human being is a unique and complex integrated system of biochemistry, genetics, thoughts, emotions, and ultimately, Consciousness. She continued her work by incorporating the models of PNEI (PsychoNeuroEndocrinology – the effects of thoughts on the nervous, endocrine and immune systems of the body) and Epigenetics (the study of changes in organisms caused by modification of genetic expression, rather than alteration of the genetic code), combined with nutritional therapy. With this knowledge, she created a customised Antiaging programme for her individual patients.

As well as being a Medical Doctor, she is also a specialist in the fields of anti-aging, biophysics and electromagnetic resonance system.

She has delivered talks at the Delhi Sri Aurobindo Ashram International School and at the Hall of Harmony, SAICE, Pondicherry. To listen to her talk click here:
